CORNERSTONE LAID FOR NEW GREEK CHURCH iver 300 in Assemblage Gathered For Ceremony Sunday Afternoon-

Greek residents of Danlelson and surrounding towns participated Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the soignment ceremony of the blessing and laying of the cornerstone of Holy Trinity Orthodox Greek church, which is to occupy a site on Water street, near Cottage street. About 300 people, representing practically all the congregations in the town, braved the cold to witness the ceremony.

Escorted by St. James' band, the procession of priests and members of the Greek church left the hall in the Hyde block at 2 o'clock and marched to the church site. There, under the waving folds of the United States flag and under the flag of Greece, the ceremonies were carried out.

By George P. Berris and Peter Sinopoulos.

Putnam, North Grosvenordale, Norwich and other places in this vicinity sent delegations to participate in the service.

The erection of the church will go forward as rapidly as weather conditions will permit. The erection of this church will be a source of much consolation to the members of the Orthodox Greek church who are resident that they have felt for a lock time. Contributions to the church fund Sunday amounted to nearly $500.
